WITH MUCH GRATITUDE!

With apologies to sons Luke, James & Grant for using a year old photo, this picture is truly worth a thousand words. Fran Sullivan did the impossible. She inherited the mantle of legendary Joan Graves who served as NEPC's Director of Music for 30 years under whom she trained for many years, and seamlessly continued and grew the wonderful music ministry our church now enjoys. Fran and husband Mark joined NEPC as a young couple with no children about 15 years ago. Now with three handsome sons and a husband who have so generously and unselfishly shared her with us for the past twelve (12!) years that she served on staff, the last six of which as our Director of Music Ministries, Fran will step aside to become a full-time mother and wife for the next chapter of the Sullivan God-story. I am hugely grateful for Fran's Godly leadership, sweet spirit and whole-hearted investment in NEPC. We will miss her gifted and Spirit-filled presence on staff, but are grateful she will continue sharing her singing gift with us in the days ahead. May God richly bless Mark, Fran and the boys as they enter this next exciting stage of their lives.

OUR SUMMER ADVENTURE

As I write these words with our inaugural summer adventure Sunday behind us, I am most grateful to all of you who have enabled the three worship times to run so smoothly in the Grand Hall. Keep the suggestions coming—we want to iron out all the kinks! Most of all, however, my hope and prayer is that God will use this summer of 2016 to refocus our minds and reenergize our hearts towards that which is foremost in His holy mind. What is that, you ask? “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in him . . .” (John 3:16 ESV). Has God put someone on your heart this summer to pray for to that end?

THE LORD GIVETH

Congratulations & God’s richest blessings to:

- JOHN RILEY SCOTT born on March 2 to David & Jenny Scott (& big brother Glenn).
- Mary Faith Blackwell & John Webster on their marriage March 6 in West Columbia.

- Harvest (C-203) – Families with teens through empty nesters; Studying Genesis
- JOY (C-301) – Empty nesters through Grandparents; Studying Revelation
- Sisters in Christ (C-302) – Women of all ages; Studying “The Good & Beautiful God”
- Fellowship (A-102) – Families with teens; Studying Genesis

11:15 – 12:15 Classes

- Friendship (C-201) – Seniors; Studying Acts
- Good News (C-203) – Empty nesters through Grandparents; Topical Studies.

Stay Spiritually Healthy this Summer

During the lazy, hazy days of summer, church activities slow down. As such, it can be a time when we become disconnected from the community of the church and a little “sluggish” in our faith. But summer, if we are intentional, can be a great time to grow spiritually. Here are eight ways to make this summer a time of spiritual growth for you and your family.

1. Turn off the T.V. and have some fun outside
2. Pick an area you’ve wanted to grow in and make it your summer focus: Prayer, Bible reading, writing, and serving.
3. Read a book, or two, or three – The Lamppost is filled with great books of various genre on numerous topics – Maybe read a book a day to your kids!
4. Have friends over – Invite those friends you’ve been thinking about having over for a long time, but just haven’t gotten around to it. Or go out on a limb and invite your neighbors over and get to know them.
5. Find a podcast and listen to it – Many pastors and teachers have their sermons and lessons featured on weekly podcasts.
6. Take a step toward improving your health – Sleep a little more, eat a little less, and maybe join that gym you’ve been meaning to start going to.
7. Find a mentor – Start getting together for lunch once a month with someone that can build into your life personally, spiritually, or vocationally.
8. Find a place to serve in the church where your gifts are being used.

Opportunities to Serve in Local Ministries

All believers are called to love others by meeting needs through our service. Part of transforming our minds is to develop a servant’s attitude so that we seize opportunities to serve others in the love of Christ. One way to serve is by volunteering in one of the local ministries our congregation supports. The following is a list of current opportunities to volunteer your service.

Youth for Christ – YFC operates in the greater Columbia area mentoring high risk youth. Mentors and helpers are needed for ministry at Camp Aspen.

jsellers@yfcmail.org or (803) 543-2128

Bethany Christian Services – BCS ministers to expectant parents facing unplanned pregnancies, places special needs children in loving adoptive families, and provides counseling and coaching to birth parents and adoptive parents. For opportunities to serve, contact smiller@bethany.org or (803) 779-0541.

Child Evangelism Fellowship – CEF reaches boys and girls with the Gospel as they learn biblical principles, moral values, and respect for authority. NEPC can organize a team to conduct a five-day Good News Club at a local elementary school in the Adopt-A-School Ministry program. Volunteers are also needed to assist with five-day Clubs during June and July.

columbiamid@cef-sc.org or (803) 798-4405

Christian Ministries International – CMI sends container shipments worldwide to help native pastors and missionaries meet people’s physical needs, demonstrating God’s love for them, and opening doors for the Gospel. CMI needs volunteers to help sort donated goods, and to pack the shipping containers.

margiesimmons@hotmail.com or (803) 736-2299

Daybreak Pregnancy Center – DPC provides pregnancy counseling to women in crisis, offering pregnancy tests, and other services as they share Jesus’ love through all they do. Hotline volunteers, Bible study leaders, and office administrator are just some of the volunteer opportunities available.

lauren@daybreakpregnancy.com or (803) 771-6634

NEPC Missions & Outreach – We have two bulletin boards where the missionaries and ministries NEPC supports are highlighted. A volunteer is needed to help decorate and keep these boards updated and attractive.

Contact me at mrodriguez@nepres.com for information on any one of these ministries, so that you can discover the joy of serving others for Jesus’ sake.

"Lift Up Your Eyes" Retreat

WOW! God met us at The Farm as close to 150 women gathered for the "Lift Up Your Eyes" retreat! We were refreshed, renewed and inspired as Carrie Ballentine and Leslie Jones of Called for Such a Time Ministry taught us through Scripture how God offers healing and wholeness through His living water, and through times of trial. The Lord used Kerri Roberts and Carrie Ballentine to prepare our hearts as they led us in praise and worship. Our prayer is that the many women of NEPC would turn to Jesus for healing and wholeness, as we lay our broken pieces at the cross. Stay tuned for details on where and when we will hold our Spring Retreat in 2017!

OUR LADIES ENJOYED TEACHING, WORSHIP, PRAYER AND FELLOWSHIP AT THE 2016 SPRING RETREAT!

Spring Tea

If you notice there are some women around NEPC that are "full and overflowing", they might have attended the Spring Tea on Saturday, April 23! Around 100 ladies enjoyed an afternoon filled with fun, fellowship and delicious food. Special thanks to the Spring Tea planning committee who served faithfully and spent countless hours preparing for the event: Pat Branham, Dianne Butler, Ruth Eleazer, Bertha Hittie, Merry Rodgers, and Jo Whittington. Also much appreciation to the ladies who provided "entertainment" and testimonies: Polly Judd, Carroll Peters, Sherry Sandifer and Kathy Seppamaki. We would also like to thank Courtney Landis for driving the bus to Wildewood Downs, Peggy Ley for her beautiful teapot flower arrangements, the many hands who prepared the delicious food, and to all those who graciously loaned us their beautiful china. The tables looked beautiful and it was fun to hear a little "background" story to some of china that was borrowed.

Summer Refresh Bible Study

Tuesdays, June 7 – August 9 (except June 21 and July 5)
9:30 – 11:30 a.m., Grand Hall

Connect with young and young-at-heart women through Bible teaching (stand-alone topics) and fellowship. Childcare is available for infant – 5th grade for a small fee. ($5.00 per child per session; $10.00 family maximum per session.) Register at nepresbyterian.org/women.

Summer Sisterhood "A Night in Tuscany"

Wednesday, July 13, 6:00 – 9:00 p.m., Grand Hall

Please join us as speaker Karen Jaedicke shares from her experiences in Italy and how the pressing of olives to make olive oil is a good metaphor of how painful experiences in our lives can produce righteousness. Cost is $5.00 (pay at the door), and a light supper will be served. Reservations are required, contact Tara Fox, tfox@nepres.com or 451-4649. Please invite a friend to this Outreach Event "Each One, Ask One!"

Ladies Freedom Project

Tuesdays, June 28, July 26, and August 23
10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., Auditorium

Join us this summer as we continue to sew re-usable sanitary pads for ladies and teens in Africa. No sewing experience is required. Any amount of time you can join us as a volunteer is appreciated as we trace, cut, pin, stitch, and turn fabric. If you have a sewing machine, please bring it. Bring your lunch. Beverages and dessert will be provided. Questions? Contact Susie Necker, 445-8726 or ssnecker@gmail.com.

Focus Bible Study

Begins Thursday, September 15, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

It's not too early to register for FOCUS. Take advantage of this opportunity to deepen your relationship with Jesus and develop friendships with other women, as we study Romans. Details and registration at nepresbyterian.org/women or contact Anne Turner, 451-4618 or aturner@nepres.com.

“Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts!”
Psalm 96:8 (ESV)

This is exactly what we desire and purpose to do when we gather each week for worship. With multiple styles of worship in one church, it’s easy to get fixated on the “how” rather than the “why.” (We musicians should know!) We sing hymns new and old, praise songs, choir anthems, doxologies, Contemporary Christian Music, modern worship songs, spontaneous songs, and so much more. We accompany those songs with organ, piano, orchestra, bells, drums, guitars, keyboards, choirs and lead singers.

But regardless of what that looks like in our various settings, we all desire to simply ascribe glory to the Lord. The glory that is due His Name. When we do that, Sunday morning or otherwise, we bring an offering to Him, whether it’s instrumental skill, vocal harmonies, technical know-how, money for the offering plate, time serving on a committee, or anything else. It’s all supposed to be an offering from our hearts that is intended for one purpose: to glorify God above all other gods (Psalm 96:4) and to declare His glory among the nations (Psalm 96:3).

Let’s not set our stylistic preferences as a god above the one true God, but offer our hearts to him freely who alone is able to save and set free. Come with a joyful heart of gratitude and worship with us this summer under one roof, in one room, with two styles, and one heart as a church worshipping the one true God.

A Big Thank You to Our Volunteers
 It's been an "all-hands-on-deck" kind of spring, especially over the last month. There have been many activities, most poignantly funerals, that members have contributed time, effort, food and especially love for their brothers and sisters in need here at NEPC. Thank you for serving each other so well. If you would like to be a part of the Hospitality Team, whether on a regular Meal Team or serving at meals for families prior to a funeral service, we'd love to have you! Email Betty Nelle Pressly at bpresly@nepres.com or call 451-4626.

LAST Math Problem of the School Year!
 Solve the mathematical problem below:

$$KIDS + BOOKS + ICE\ CREAM + PRIZES = _? _$$

If you answered SUMMER READING CLUB, go to the head of the class (then go on vacation with a pile of books)! The Lamppost's 2016 NO STRESS CHILDREN'S SUMMER READING CLUB DATES ARE SET: JUNE 1 - AUGUST 16. Just think: almost three months to kick back and relax and READ WHAT you WANT, WHEN you WANT, IN ANY FORMAT you want, WHERE you want . . . and get great prizes for it!. Registration is open now for three age divisions: ages 3 - 6, 7 - 12 and 13 - 17.

We'll read, read, read and then celebrate with a big party where we'll eat ice cream and receive prizes in August! We'll also award Grand Prizes in drawings for qualified readers in each age division with the Grand Prize for our qualified readers 7 and up: an electronic (MORSEL OF THE MONTH) SURCIE TBA!

Registration forms and full details are available at the Lamppost desk in the Atrium, so PARENTS: stop by and get your kids in on the action!

But we're not forgetting about our "bigger" kids too! This summer, our grownups will find free reading lists, more audio books, and a new crop of Christian and good secular fiction on our shelves . . . just in time for vacation reading!

Summer is about relaxing, enjoying a slower pace, reading, watching, and listening to great books and movies, and The Lamppost is here to serve those needs! We're hotter than South Carolina in August in our quest to light up your world with reading!!!!!! Come "check us out" this week and get your child(ren) registered for Summer Reading Club!

And be watching midweek email updates about another CHURCH FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT, coming later this summer! We're the Lamppost!
