

---

SUMMER PSALTER
REV. ADAM WILLIAMS
NEPC SERMON SERIES
SUNDAY, JULY 7, 2024

---

Sermon Title: "A Pilgrim Pathway"
(#7 in the Sermon Series)

Scripture text: Psalm 133

Outline:

1. Unity of God's People is Objectively Good
2. Unity of God's People is Objectively Visible
3. Unity of God's People is Objectively Eternal

Questions:

1. What does this passage specifically teach about the fallen nature and brokenness of mankind apart from God?
2. What do you see in this passage that specifically speaks to the nature and character of the Lord?
3. What is God trying to shape and form in you, as His child, living in this world, through His word in this passage?
4. Interact with this quote: "We only need patience when we are being tested and we only need to bear with people who are frustrating us." - Barnabas Piper
5. What are some of the tangible steps that the Lord is calling you to take in this season for the sake of unity with other believers?
6. In what ways might the church, walking together in unity in Christ, stand in contrast to the prevailing culture around us? What does that look like?